

Swiss Confederation

Notification

We inform you about a serious incident of an aircraft registered in Switzerland which occurred in India.

Place, date and time: Indira Gandhi International Airport (IGI), 25 April 2026, 19:57 UTC

Aircraft

Registration Mark: HB-JHK

Type: AIRBUS S.A.S., A330-343

Operator: Swiss International Air Lines Ltd., Obstgartenstrasse 25, 8302 Kloten

Owner: Swiss International Air Lines Ltd., Obstgartenstrasse 25, 8302 Kloten

Pilots: 2

Cabin crew: 11

Passengers: 232

Flight:

Flight rules: Instrument Flight Rules (IFR)

Type of operation: Scheduled

Point of departure: IGI Airport, New Delhi (VIDP)

Point of landing: Zurich Airport (LSZH)

Damage:

Crew: Not injured

Passengers: 4 Passengers reported to have received injuries during evacuation process

Thirds: None

Aircraft: Slightly damaged

Ground: None

Short description:

As per the information received, an Airbus A330-343 aircraft Registration HB-JHK of SWISS AIR while operating Flight - SWR147 from Delhi to Zurich, abandoned take off on RWY28 at time 1957 UTC on 25 April 2026 (0127 Hrs IST on 26 Apr 2026), due to one engine failure (port engine) and requested for Fire Brigade. Fire and smoke were observed by the airport authorities on the port side. Emergency evacuation of passengers was carried out. As per the information received, damages were confined to port engine.

Remarks:

The Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau, India (<https://aaib.gov.in/>) has opened an investigation.

Bern, 27 April 2026